N/A. Use the word count calculator to check how many words you used. You can also click on "Summary" in the editing screen to get an idea of where you should cut/add content. If it is not obvious, please write !below! in your post and we will edit it for you: !below! How many words here? How many words would you like? What needs cutting and what needs adding? Help with spacing, punctuation, etc.? Sorry I need help with that! Thanks
